

AUGSBURG- YOUNGSTERS 2010

Youngsters from 10 to 15 years old

Augsburg is the third largest city in Bavaria (275,000 inhabitants), it is a university town, the seat of the Swabian government, an important economic center with internationally known companies, as well as a city where young people love to live. Our language center is located in the city center, near the Central Station. All rooms have bright and modern facilities. A team of experienced teachers designed the lessons and help in daily communication. A total of 20 lessons are held per week. Each lesson lasts 45 minutes and there are up to 15 students in the course, but the average is 12 students. Classes are held from Monday to Friday, except on holidays or day trips. The materials are made available. At the end of the course there is a certificate of participation. You will live alongside your classmates in our student residence, which is directly in the center of the city. There you will stay in comfortable shared rooms (2-4 students) with up to 4 beds. The bath / WC is directly in the room or sometimes in the hallway.
